Defendant	:	MOTION TO COMPEL

ORDER

AND NOW, this 7th day of November, 2012, Defendant's Motion to Compel the Plaintiff to Answer Supplemental Interrogatory #1 served on the Plaintiff is GRANTED. The information requested in Supplemental Interrogatory #1 could lead to relevant information. Furthermore, Plaintiff's argument of an expectation of privacy regarding her use of social media is misplaced. Those who elect to use social media, and place things on the internet for viewing, sharing and use with others, waives an expectation of privacy. At this point, the information requested is not a privacy violation. It is ORDERED and DECREED that the Plaintiff's Objection to Supplemental Interrogatory #1 is OVERRULED, and the Plaintiff is directed to answer the Supplemental Interrogatory #1 within twenty (20) days of the date of this Order.
